

History 2024/2025

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Eagles	Ride a Cock Horse Learn about the history of buildings in our local area focusing on Wroxton's schools and All Saints church. Use pictorial, written and oral sources to help answer the question how have people's lives Banbury and Wroxton changed over time? Learn the historical significance of the traditional nursery rhyme 'Ride a cock horse'. Class trip to Banbury Museum will include handling objects to explore key topics in Banbury's history.		One Small Step Explores the History enquiry question 'Has man ever been to the moon and how can we know for sure?' We will begin by learning about the history of space travel, link this to Neil Armstrong and Tim Peake's missions before considering the significance of astronauts exploring space and landing on the moon.		History – Changes within living memory Toys and games Toys and games now and the past. Finding out about toys our parents and grandparents played with when they were young and comparing them to the toys and games we play today.
Kestrels		Great Fire of London Learn about the significant historic event from the 17th Century – The Great Fire of London. Explore and discuss the difference between historical and fictional artefacts. Explore what life was like in the 17th century, the timeline of the fire and the			History – a theme over time Explore schools and education overtime and investigate the history of Wroxton and St Mary's Primary Schools.

History 2024/2025

		significance of the River Thames. Understand the lasting effect and its impacts we are still seeing now in modern London.
Kites		Why were the Roman army so effective? Explore the enquiries: How did the Roman Empire grow so big? When did the Romans invade Britain and why? Did the native Britons welcome or resist them, and why? How did they influence the lives of the people already here? Use a range of evidence, ask questions, suggest hypotheses and then suggest answers to our original enquiry question.			History – a theme over time Minted! Explore how coins are made and the history they reveal. Understand decimalisation in 1971. Explore how coins are sources of evidence and how coin designers show what is important to a culture. How coins mark significant events in British history and explore commemorative 50 pence coins commemorating and celebrating public figures, important discoveries and historical events.
Falcons		Groundbreaking Greeks Explore Ancient Greece through four key enquiries; Life in Ancient Greece, compare and contrast City States Athens and Sparta, explore Ancient Gods and their importance in Greek culture and the legacy of Ancient Greeks.		World War 2 Research the key events of WW2 Explore the impact of WW2 on Coventry and how children were affected by the war.	History – a theme over time Code makers and breakers Bletchley Park History of technology through time to understand how codes have been used in relation to WW2 and how code is used today.	