

Geography 2024/2025

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Eagles	Ride a Cock Horse Explore features of our local area; Wroxton School and where we live. Use ground level photographs, draw maps, and plot routes. Explore plans, maps, aerial photographs and digital maps. Conduct fieldwork for our own small group geographical investigation. Use geographical vocabulary to describe our locality and its human and physical features.		One small step... Compare two contrasting locations – Australia and the United Kingdom. Explore locations, physical features, unique animals. Compare weather and seasons.
Kestrels			Rainforest Seasonal changes in the UK and the World. Equator, North and South Pole and learning about how the weather differs and why. Observing and recording the weather and thinking about how weather impacts on people's lives.			Local area study Locating Banbury and The Cotswolds with an address and directions. Explore features of our local area. Mapping places to visit. Explore local landmarks. Undertake fieldwork in our locality.
Kites			A single drop of rain. Exploring the water cycle and then link this is the journey of a river. Answering the questions			Europe study What is it like to live in northern Italy? Explore location and transport. Research

Love, Compassion and Courage

Geography 2024/2025

			How are rivers formed? How do rivers change? and Where do rivers end? Research focus; River Thames.			geographical features in northern Italy. Compare a village and town in northern Italy. Explore Venice as a popular tourist destination.
Falcons	Sow, grow, farm and trade. Explore how goods and services are traded around the world. UK's trade links today and in the past, finding out about goods imported and exported and the methods of transport used. Explore fair trade and why it is important in a global market.		Route 66 Research north America and explore Route 66. Locate north America using atlases and Google Earth. Research population density and the impact route 66 has had on America.			